

Tarrant County Gay Pride Week Association 31st Anniversary Celebration

Announcing Vendor Opportunity Saturday, October 6th & Sunday, October 7

Celebrating 31 years of PRIDE in Tarrant County, we've made quite a few firsts to our history. A full weekend of events is scheduled. The "Pride Weekend" centers around our beautiful city's downtown area with our Pride Parade & Street Festival and down the road, to the bustling 7th Street district, the Pride Picnic site at Trinity Park.

In 2011, for the first time, our GLBT community marched Downtown Fort Worth with the "Ride the Rainbow" Pride Parade and celebrated afterward at the Pride Street Festival located at General Worth Square. We have made downtown Fort Worth our home for these events. The festival will entertain attendees with bands, vocalists, shopping opportunity and activities in a family friendly environment. Estimated attendance for Parade Day is over 4,000.

The weekend culminates at the Pride Picnic in beautiful Trinity Park. Areas of interest include; "Rainbow Kingdom" - arts & crafts area for our Pride Kids with activities and events, Vendor specific tents for your shopping pleasure, Health & Wellness area for up to date education and outdoor activities such as volleyball, etc. Mainstage entertainment includes bands, live performances and much more. Estimated attendance for Picnic Day is 4,000 +.

Pride Week, October 4th - 14th, is estimated to draw over 15,000 people from Tarrant County, across the state and beyond. Our PRIDE cannot be contained locally. Articles and advertisement for our 31st Anniversary are being generated locally and internationally thru print, the internet and social media.

TCGPWA is offering the following vendor opportunities, "open to the public", for your business or organization.
